11. (U) EconPolCouns delivered refel points to Austrian MFA European Correspondent Andreas Riecken on October 28.

12. (C) Riecken made the following comments on our points:

- On Iran, there will be a conclusion calling on the need to maintain contact with civil society. The conclusion will refer to the rule of 1
 - On the Doha Round, the French say they want to talk about WTO, but the long list of agenda items will prevent this from being a major point
 - On Iraq, there have been new discussions in the council working group, and there will be further discussions in the Political Security Comm
 - Riecken confirmed that there would be no "Western Balkans" point, per se, but only a Kosovo point. There would, however, be a council conc
 - On ICTY cooperation, Riecken noted that the rapid transfer of Ante Gotovina to the Hague for trial was "also our aim."
 - On the UN Millenium Development Summit, Riecken said there were no plans to discuss Official Development Assistance (ODA) goals, as such.
